

Paranoid

Royal Bliss

I think I'm going crazy
None of this used to phase me
Now I feel a little bit hazy
I think I'm just paranoid

All this pressure
Used to be my greatest pleasure
Something that I used to treasure
Now it's just another void
Cause everybody's watching me

Yeah, slipping out the back door
I can't take it anymore
I'm running for my life

I think I'm just paranoid
I think I'm just paranoid

All these voices
Tellin' me I got no choices
All a bunch of crowded noises
Everyone's an enemy

I got this power
This could be my finest hour
Maybe I'm just a coward
Everybody's watching me
Everybody's watching me

Yeah, slipping out the back door
Cause I can't take it anymore
I'm running for my life

I think I'm just paranoid
I think I'm just paranoid
I think I'm just paranoid

(Everybody's watching me)
(Everybody's watching me)

Everybody's watching me
Everybody's watching me
Everybody's watching me
Everybody's watching me

Yeah, slipping out the back door
Cause I can't take it anymore
I'm running for my life
Everybody's watching me
Yeah, slipping out the back door
Cause I can't take it anymore
I'm running for my life

I think I'm just paranoid
I think I'm just paranoid
I think I'm just paranoid
I think I'm just paranoid

I think I'm just paranoid
