

Through Hell

Royal Bliss

They say the devil's just an angel
That never learned from all his pain
They say the strong are never strangers
To the darkest of their days

I've learned there's beauty in the danger
There's meaning in the misery
Someday you'll look back at what it made you
And you'll never be the same

I had to go through hell
Through hell
To be the person I am today
Had to find myself
Myself
Climbing a mountain of my mistakes
Cause I was worth the war that's underneath my skin
And if I had to I would do it all again
Through hell
Through hell
You want a story to tell
You gotta go through hell

They say you're never gonna make it
Keep you digging just to find fool's gold
I know legends never had to fake it
Born with souls that can't be sold

They're gonna talk you down
Like you're a stupid kid
You gonna wave a white flag
Or are you gonna get pissed
What you call taking punches
I call learning how to live
So keep your prison cell

I'd rather go through hell
Through hell
To be the person I am today
I had to find myself
Myself
Climbing a mountain of my mistakes
Cause I was worth the war that's underneath my skin
And if I had to I would do it all again
Through hell
Through hell
You want a story to tell
You gotta go through hell

You want a story
Want a story you can tell
You gotta go

You want a story

You gotta go cause
If you let go
You'll never know

I had to go through hell
Through hell
Cause sometimes that's the only way

I had to go through hell
Through hell
To be the person I am today
Had to find myself
Myself
Climbing a mountain of my mistakes
Cause I was worth the war that's underneath my skin
And if I had to I would do it all again
Through hell
Through hell
