

Typhoons

Royal Blood

Rip the plug out the radio
Switch me off, put me under
Till I'm sky high, give me vertigo (somebody)
Let me know when it's over

'Cause all these chemicals
Dancing through my veins
They don't kill the cause
They just numb the pain
I need waking up
I should face the truth
I could calm the storm
If I wanted to

(Typhoon)
My thoughts becoming parasites
(Typhoon)
That live to keep me terrified
(Typhoon)
I tell myself I'll be alright
Typhoons keep on raging
And I don't know why

(Typhoon...)

Flashbacks, I'm not letting go
Tear me up, cast a shadow
I got game face but it's all for show
Can't give it up, blow my cover

'Cause all these chemicals
Dancing through my veins
They don't kill the cause
They just numb the pain
I need waking up
I should face the truth
I could calm the storm
If I wanted to

(Typhoon)
My thoughts becoming parasites
(Typhoon)
That live to keep me terrified
(Typhoon)
I tell myself I'll be alright
Typhoons keep on raging
And I don't know why

(Typhoon)
Dark memories like lightning strike
(Typhoon)
Shake and sway me through the night
(Typhoon)
Raging on behind my eyes
I'm doomed and I'm waiting
For light in my sky
Typhoons keep on raging

And I don't know why

(Typhoon...)

(Typhoon...)

(Typhoon...)

(Typhoon...)

My thoughts becoming parasites
That live to keep me terrified
I tell myself I'll be alright
Typhoons keep on raging
And I don't know why

(Typhoon)

Dark memories like lightning strike

(Typhoon)

Shake and sway me through the night

(Typhoon)

Raging on behind my eyes
I'm doomed and I'm waiting
For light in my sky
Typhoons keep on raging
