

I could waste every night
Throw it all on the fire
I could fade and I might
Disappear right behind you

But where would I go?
What would I take?
If you ever find me falling away
Don't let me choke
Like I'm nothing to save
If you ever lose me dive under the waves

I could trip, I could slide
And leave you none the wiser
I could give up the fight
Disappear right behind you

But where would I go?
What would I take?
If you ever find me, falling away
Don't let me choke
Like I'm nothing to save
If you ever lose me dive under the waves
