Restless

Royal Hunt

Restless
Restless
Restless, restless
Restless, restless

I have this feeling that I've never been alone
No matter where I go to face another day
Can't break away this present time I call my own
Can't see no changes, just a else aid I pray

No matter how I try I just can't break the spell
I'm goin' back to heaven but they're goin' back to hell

Restless, restless
Nowhere to hide and nowhere to run
Restless, restless
Who will remember my name when I'm gone?
Restless

I've been faces I could choose any which way
Somebody's watchin' and somebody will make you stay
I know the inner crier makes me insecure
I love to hear you, babe, but who can find the door

No matter how I try I just can't break the spell
I'm goin' back to heaven but they're goin' back to hell

Restless, restless
Nowhere to hide and nowhere to run
Restless, restless
Who will remember my name when I'm gone?

Who can drive when the damage is done?
Now on the stage make a wish and it's lorn

Restless, restless
Who will remember my name when I'm gone?
Restless

Restless, restless
Nowhere to hide and nowhere to run
Restless, restless
Who will remember my name when I'm gone?

Restless, restless
Nowhere to hide and nowhere to run
Restless, restless
Who will remember my name when I'm gone?
Restless
