

U-Turn

Royal Hunt

Somebody told me I was dreaming
"You can forget about changing the rules There is no simple way of living" said liars and fools

Feels like I'm movin' round in circles
'Coz any turn I make won't let me get away
Would you beleive in happy endings what ever thay say?

Every day, every night I'm still searching for my ray of light Day by day, night by night am I closer, please, somebody tell me!

Last U-turn on the way to my dream
And I hope I can make it at last Last U-turn and I'm ready to win Learning heartache and pain in the past

How many miles have I've been walkin'
How many years has passed
- it's very heavy load Through neverending mindless talking
'Til the end of the road

They keep on calling me a dreamer "You can forget about changing the rules
There is no honest way of living"
They're liars and fools
