

Won't Trust, Won't Fear, Won't Beg

Royal Hunt

So many times before I felt the world came crushing down
And all around me slowly melt across entire town
Right there you'd kneel and pray
To someone up there with a crown... or wish yourself away
While growing up I quickly learned -
You always hold your ground
And never leave a stone unturned - you better stick around
We're born and die alone, so learn to make it on your own
I won't trust, won't fear, won't beg I'm telling you:
At last - forgive, forget - the words which I knew
As they were branded on my mind
But now it's all what I can find:
Won't trust, won't fear, won't beg for the rest of my life
I won't trust, won't fear - that page's remaining unsigned
Whoever tells you to retreat is messing with your head
The fight's not over when you're beat but only when you're dead
Don't let them shred your life to bits
By now you should have learned
Who never wins? The one who quits at the point of no return
