

Oops, I know I sent you nudes
Last Tuesday afternoon
Did it catch you by surprise
Or did you really like it?
Oops, we had sex on your couch
In the middle of your house
While your roommates were gone
And then we cuddled on the lawn

We ate clementines
And I pretended you were mine
And you pretended I was yours
For like an hour but I

I wouldn't let you kiss me
Didn't want you to miss me
Don't wanna hurt your feelings
Easier said than done
I know that you're the nice guy
I know that you'll be just fine
Don't wanna waste your time
It's easier said than done

Easier said than done

Oops, I let you produce
All of my new songs
And now my whole entire team
Is like damn this guy is great
And I'm like oh great
We've seen each other naked
Does that make it complicated?
Is it obvious that

I wouldn't let you kiss me
Didn't want you to miss me
Don't wanna hurt your feelings
Easier said than done
I know that you're the nice guy
I know that you'll be just fine
Don't wanna waste your time
It's easier said than done

Easier said than done
Easier said than done
