

Aftermath

Royal Tusk

I should be losin' sleep, but losing ain't enough
There's not a tragedy so bad, it keeps me up
I should be cryin' out, but cryin' is a shame
Is it even easier when nothin' ever changes? (Changes)

Life, these are the times
That will define us, you and I
Will you look back on this one day?
Will you look back on this and say

I'm crossin' the lines
That are dividin' you and I
When you look back on this one day
Will you look back on this one day?

Yeah

I'm in the aftermath, but after's what it was
The gossip makin' sense is never addin' up
No stop, no grindin', huh, in findin', are we dead?
What's this gotta do with me? They say we're lookin' up, (Now)

Life, these are the times
That will define us, you and I
Will you look back on this one day?
Will you look back on this and say

I'm crossin' the lines
That are dividin' you and I
When you look back on this one day
Will you look back on this one day?

Times are comin' alive
We can fight this, you and I
Will you look back on this one day?
And find the aftermath has changed?

I'm drawing the lines
That will define us, you and I
Will you look back on this one day?
Will you look back on this and say

I'm crossin' the lines
They will divide us, you and I
When you look back on this one day
Will you look back on this one day?
