

Engine

Royal Tusk

My engine's tickin' on the West Coast
The air is cool and I'm so aware
And I'm slippin', everybody's slippin'
And we'll make it to the outside

So the sun's in the windshield
With the moon in the rearview mirror
I never been so sure
I gotta get out of here

There was a time I held my breath
But every time I let it go
In all the tides [?]
It was not enough [?]

There was a lie, I bit my tongue
Another side I'll never show
What is mine you'll never get
What you lost you'll never know

Now it's time to take your money back
Now it's time to let go
If you don't run out you'll never make it out
You'll never make it, I know

Now it's time to take your lovin' back
Now it's time to let go
If you don't run out you'll never make it out
You'll never make it, I know

So my girl's in the next room
The taste of gin and sweat and perfume
And I'm sippin' everybody's sippin'
And I make it to the outside

No time to rest, lay my body down
No time to call and explain why I'm not around
So just to say, it's safe to say I'm sayin' goodbye
I'm in too deep but I'll make it to the outside

There was a lie, I bit my tongue
Another side I'll never show
And what is mine you'll never get
And what you lost you'll never know, so

Now it's time to take your money back
Now it's time to let go
If you don't run out you'll never make it out
You'll never make it, I know

Now it's time to take your lovin' back
Now it's time to let go
If you don't run out you'll never make it out
You'll never make it, I know

I know you're comin' baby
I know I won't be back

I know you're losin' but you'll
You'll come here for the sake of it

My engine's tickin' on the West Coast
The air is cool and I'm so aware
And I'm slippin'
And I'm slippin'

Now it's time to take your money back
Now it's time to let go
If you don't run out you'll never make it out
You'll never make it, I know

Now it's time to take your lovin' back
Now it's time to let go
If you don't know run out (If you don't run out)
You'll never make it out
You'll never make it, I know
(You'll never, never)

Now it's time to take
Take your money back
Now it's time to take
Take your lovin' back
Now it's time to take
Take your money back
Now it's time to take
Take your money back
