

Fever

Royal Tusk

Burning all these days
Don't got no more to feed the glow
Embers like a memory that I can't see
No more, no more
Yeah, long ago
Just like a spark that's floating in the smoke
I followed you through the air
Not quite knowing where to go

Sleep walking in a fever
I go looking for you every night
And after midnight, it gets clearer
I go looking for you

To get it right
Because I think I get you every time
Then of course before you know
I'm certainly aware, aware
It's alright
Hey baby, I think about you every night
But when I rest my weary eyes
I know you're waiting there, yeah

Sleep walking in a fever
I go looking for you every night
And after midnight, it gets clearer
'Cause when I get you, girl, it feels right
Yeah, sleep walking in a fever
I go looking for you every night
Like a stranger in the mirror
I go looking for you
I go looking for you

Burning low these days
Don't got no more to feed the glow
Embers like a memory that I can't see
No more, no more, no more

Sleep walking in a fever
I go looking for you every night
And after midnight, it gets clearer
'Cause when I get you, girl, it feels right
Yeah, sleep walking in a fever (don't know where you are)
I go looking for you every night (don't know where you are)
Like a stranger in the mirror
I go looking for you
(I go looking for you)
I go looking for you
(I go looking for you)
I go looking for you
