

Rhinestone Doo Rag

Royce da 5'9"

Motherfucker, say what?

Yeah

White Jesus taught you heathens cross you niggas just to stone you

Knowledge empowers all you quicker than ignorance disarms you
I hate to see Tee Grizzley going through shit he shouldn't be going through

I hate to see Shady respond to shit he shouldn't respond to
I hate that your Commander In Chief is more demander and thief
And it seems like this boy just can't be impeached

I can't be under the thumb of one who seems to be attracted to his own daughter

Why should we not set up shop?

We black, we are our own barbers

But even a jewel from a fool is still a gem

A dude'll put more energy in killing you than healing him

We went from riding in Yugos to buying sumo statues

When you fall from that level of flying, who gon' catch you?

Pac and Biggie died for you rappers so you don't have to

Martin and Malcolm died for your blackness, pursue your masters

I wore that rhinestone doo-rag so you don't have to

I'ma need you to Google that too

I wore a rhinestone doo-rag, but you don't have to

Next generation, it's on y'all

Motherfucker, say what?
