

Til The Morning

Royel Otis

Wish you were here, but you've left and gone away
I miss you my friend, left with all you had to say
Yeah, I miss those days
Stay awake and bleed into, both of our mistakes
We shared no enemies

And, and maybe it's my fault, or maybe I just don't believe
In you, when it's hurting
Time has seen you change
Still I want you to stay, with me, till the morning
To when it all falls down

I wish you were here, but you've left, you've gone today
I miss you my friend, left with all you had to say

Yeah, I miss those days
Stay awake and we would drive where, we wouldn't know
Lights turn green and we'd just go away

And maybe it's my fault, or maybe I just don't believe
In you, when it's hurting
Time has seen you change
Still I want you to stay, with me, till the morning
To when it all falls down
And maybe it's my fault, or maybe I just don't believe
In you, when it's hurting
Time has seen you change
Still I want you to stay, with me, till the morning
To when it all falls down
