

Clouds

Rozzi Crane

I wrote you a letter
To say my last goodbye
'Cause the man that I still love
I never seem to find
I'm not who I was, no
Three years and then one day
Woke up I couldn't wait
For you to make a change

I'm your sunny day
But how much can I give you
'Til all I got is rain
When you drift my way
I just want to hold you
But you just slip away

Clouds
Could only love you from a distance
Clouds
Lose myself when I fall in it
Clouds
And then you slip right through my fingers
Clouds

Tell myself I can't miss you
'Cause you were never really there
And tryna hold onto you
Is like holding onto air
Yeah I know I made the right choice
'Cause there was no choice at all
I can't stop the wind from blowing
You can't change who you are

I'm your sunny day
But how much can I give you
'Til all I got is rain
When you drift my way
I just want to hold you
But you just slip away

Clouds
Could only love you from a distance
Clouds
Lose myself when I fall in it
Clouds
And then you slip right through my fingers
Clouds

I let you fly away
(I let you, I let you, I let you)
I let you fly away
(I let you, I let you, I let you)
I let you fly away
(I let you, I let you, I let you)
I let you fly away
(I let you, I let you, I let you)

Clouds (I let you, I let you, I let you)
Could only love you from a distance
Clouds (I let you, I let you, I let you)
Lose myself when I fall in it
Clouds (I let you, I let you, I let you)
And then you slip right through my fingers
Clouds (I let you, I let you, I let you)
Could only love you from a distance, yeah

From the ground it's like a dream (I let you, I let you, I let you)
But its never what it seems (I let you, I let you, I let you)
Look up, it's heaven in my eyes (I let you, I let you, I let you)
Get there, I'm just lost in your sky (I let you, I let you, I let you)
