Rozzi Crane

You're so hot, it hurts
I've never said those words
When you're in your white t-shirt
I'm like, "Mmm, don't stop"
Both hands on my face
Makes my skin break out for days
Pray we don't fade away

This, that teenage thing I never had
That would have ended bad
Before the time it takes to see
Love ain't just heat walking out the door

Thank God I didn't meet you ten years ago
'Cause now I know, I'm ready to flow
Stay steady, yeah, I see you
With your hat down low
I won't sink this boat, no, I'm ready to flow
Flow, baby
I'm ready to flow, mmm, yeah

These days don't follow worries in my head
I just hang with you instead
Champagne in bed, uh-uh, yeah
These days the world is burning down outside
But I feel lucky all the time
'Cause you're mine, you're mine, you're mine, hey

Thank God I didn't meet you ten years ago
'Cause now I know, I'm ready to flow
Stay steady, yeah, I see you
With your hat down low
I won't sink this boat, I'm ready to flow
Flow
Oh no, oh no, hey

This, that teenage thing I never had
That would have ended bad
Before the time it takes to see
Love ain't just heat walking out the door

Thank God I didn't meet you ten years ago
'Cause now I know, yeah
Stay steady, yeah, I see you
With your hat down low
I won't sink this boat, I'm ready to flow

I won't give into that shit (Flow)
When we get lonely, batshit (Flow)
Won't be no rollercoaster (Flow)
I'm coastin'
Give me all your emotions (Give me all your emotions)
I'm not a door that's closing (I'm not a door that's closing)
This ain't no rollercoaster (This ain't no rollercoaster)
I'm coastin'
With you
I'm rolling with you

I'm rolling with you
I wanna flow, flow, flow
