I dk

Rozzi Crane

I'm used to bad guys
Being bad together
And sad forever
If it means butterflies

Too used to red lights
Speeding through 'em fast
Tell myself the crash
Is justified

Cause real love must be hard
Hard to believe in a feeling that comes too easy
But it might be what we are

I don't know where it's going
I don't know where it's going
I don't know where we're going
I don't know where it's going
I don't know what we're doing (I don't I don't)
If it's gonna leave us good or broken (I don't I don't know ooo)
I don't know I'm just hoping
(I dk ooo)

You ain't here to play no games
Your
Devotion don't come in waves
I
Still wanna say your name
Again
Still wanna say your name
Cause
The fire don't have to hurt
And
Falling don't have to burn
I
Used to be so sure

That real love must be hard
Hard to believe in a feeling that comes too easy
But it might be what we are

I don't know where it's going
I don't know where it's going
I don't know where we're going
I don't know where it's going mhm
I don't know what we're doing (I don't I don't)
If it's gonna leave us good or broken (I don't I don't know ooo)
I don't know I'm just hoping
(I dk ooo)

I'm just hoping we're going home
I'm just hoping we're going home
Yeah yeah
I hope we're going home
