

Lose Us

Rozzi Crane

I feeling weird 'bout you and I
Something has changed I don't know why
Looking at you my old best friend
Is this a phase? Is this the end?

I got a million thoughts about you a day
Face to face I got nothing to say

We're gonna lose us now
Can't fight the truth that we found
Yeah, that we've been growing distant suddenly
And I can't believe
That I won't be there for you, there for you, there for you
We're gonna lose us now

We spoke our minds, I miss those days
Our secret language is now erased, oh
Candles and flowers and compromise
At least we leave knowing we tried (yeah, we tried)

You and I will drown in denial
Let's bite the bullet, say our goodbyes

We're gonna lose us now
Can't fight the truth that we found
Yeah, that we've been growing distant suddenly
And I can't believe
That I won't be there for you, there for you, there for you
We're gonna lose us now
Hey, yeah

I could go on and on and on
About the things that broke my heart
I could go on and on and on
How it was you who drove us apart
Truth of the matter is
It doesn't matter if, it was me or you
Sometimes the biggest flames, burn out anyway
So looks like we're gonna
Lose us now
Can't fight the truth that we found

Yeah, that we've been growing distant suddenly
And I can't believe
That I won't be there for you, there for you, there for you
We're gonna lose us now
Don't wanna lose us, baby
I can't believe
That I won't be there for you, there for you, there for you

We're gonna lose
We're gonna lose (lose us)
We, we, we, now (we gonna)
We're gonna lose (baby)
We're gonna lose
We, we, we, now

Looking at you my old best friend, mmm
Is this a phase? Is this the end?
