

Rock Bottom

Rozzi Crane

Sounds like you're doing well
You're great and you made sure I knew it, congrats well
Me, I'm not doing so well
I was holding back tears while you bragged and

I think it's funny how quick you forgot
How I held you there on the floor of your place
I stayed your therapist for you talk
Til you had a good six months and threw me away
So high on yourself
Your head's in the clouds
Maybe you can't see it now but

I know what's waiting for you
Here on rock bottom
I know what's waiting for you
When the glitter stops falling

It's not easy to tell someone you miss 'em
To be vulnerable with your heart
I called you up in a moment of weakness
But we both know I'm the strong one
You can keep your nepotism
Your whiskey escapism
All your excuse repertoire
You can keep your yes man shit
Keep your promise to quit
Cause I'm not listening anymore

I think it's funny how quick you forgot
How I held you there on the floor of your place
There was a time I'd do anything for you
But pine for a guy with no spine, no way baby

I know what's waiting for you
Here on rock bottom
I know what's waiting for you
When the glitter stops falling
I caught you so many times
But not anymore
When you hit the ground
You'll know what's waiting for you
Here on rock bottom

So high on yourself
Under your own spell
You don't know the cost
Can't see you what you lost with me

I know what's waiting for you
Here on rock bottom
I know what's waiting for you
When the glitter stops falling
I caught you so many times
But not anymore
When you hit the ground
You'll know what's waiting for you

Here on rock bottom

Yeah, maybe you can't see it now but

When a stranger leaves your bed
And I'm left on your mind
When it seems you have it all
But something doesn't feel right
When my doors are all closed
And I'm a hundred feet high
You'll know