

Young & Foolish

Rozzi Crane

Never do I ever feel finished when I'm working
Always wanting something more
And never do I ever feel my best
Always searching for ways of breaking down the next door
In moments like this, I feel crazy from all the rushing
And all the waiting, all the stopping, false starts
Cause sometimes everything is so messy
It makes you tired, makes you forget who you are

But I still know how to dream
And I still know how to reach

Just let them think we're young and foolish
Like we don't understand
But we're rough and we're restless
And we're dying to take chances
And fly like we're not scared to fall
We'll fly like we're not scared at all
Let them think we're young and foolish

Say now, ooh, they warned you
Try to scare you into falling in line
[?], weight is crushing
Feel them hushing and try to get in your mind

But you still know how to dream
And you still know how to reach

Just let them think we're young and foolish
Like we don't understand
But we're rough and we're restless
And we're dying to take chances
And fly like we're not scared to fall
We'll fly like we're not scared at all
Let them think we're young and foolish
With our heads in the sand
Let them keep their illusion, hold the truth in our hands
And fly like we're not scared to fall
We'll fly like we're not scared at all
Just let them think we're young and foolish

I can't stop now, I'm moved too close
You tell me "no" [?]
I may be young, but I'm no fool
Just when I'm doing, watch me fly

Just let them think we're young and foolish
Like we don't understand
But we're rough and we're restless
And we're dying to take chances
And fly like we're not scared to fall
We'll fly like we're not scared at all
While they're thinking we're young and foolish
With our heads in the sand
Let them keep their illusion, hold the truth in our hands
And fly like we're not scared to fall
We'll fly like we're not scared at all

Just let them think that we're young and foolish
And fly like we're not scared to fall
Like we're young and foolish
We'll fly like we're not scared at all
Just let them think that we're young and foolish
