

Cake

RPWL

Lovely sweetness of the day
When I come into the [???)
I smell the taste of your perfume you're here

Lovely sweetness of your life
When I walk right through the door
In my mind I see the color of your hair

I just came to say I'm sorry
Got no dark thoughts in my mind
Glad to see you standing there

Piece of cake/here's a cake
From my mother
Piece of cake/here's a cake
As a present for you
And your new friend by the way
What's his name? (What's his name?)
What's his name? (What's his name?)

[???) are only lost in thought
If I tell you I'm not [???)
I doubt you won't believe me tonight

Days with no clouds, night with no sleep
I can't seem to let you [???)

So [???) something special with me

I just came to say I'm sorry
Got no dark thoughts in my mind
Glad to see you standing there

Piece of cake/here's a cake
From my mother
Piece of cake/here's a cake
As a present for you
And your new friend by the way
What's his name? (What's his name?)
