

Masterpiece

Ruben Studdard

Come on
She looks like a polaroid
Smooth like corduroy
Stand at attention, just call me soldier boy
Let me put the bangle on your ankle
Girl I'm thinking, cause you look like an angel from every single angle
My lord
How many payments on the Honda Accord
Cause I can afford to do that
First class flew that Cause she the beauty and I'm a beast
We a masterpiece, baby

Cause baby you're a masterpiece
And you don't really need no filter
Something like a centerpiece
A perfect figure
And Michelangelo couldn't paint it
Bet your last dollar Shakespeare couldn't say it
Strike a pose for the camera, smile and say cheese
You're a masterpiece to me

I'm trying to find a way to explain (explain) her crazy frame
She so damn fine, it's a shame
That thang (that thang) got me goin' bananas; orangutan
Look baby wanna wrap a three fanger rang
So I'm gonna wrap it up tight
And the bed gon' be squeakin'
The Ramada every weekend
Until the sheets get to creasin'
She the beauty and I'm a beast
And forever we'll be a masterpiece

Cause baby you're a masterpiece
And you don't really need no filter
Something like a centerpiece
A perfect figure
And Michelangelo couldn't paint it
Bet your last dollar Shakespeare couldn't say it
Strike a pose for the camera, smile and say cheese
You're a masterpiece to me

I'd like to trace the lines of your face
Looking at your lips makes me want to taste
Feel of your skin, your pretty brown eyes
I'm getting lost, you got me mesmerized
Hand in your hair, you answered my prayer
I can do this all my life, I swear
Pretty thing, you should hang in a frame
That's how you became my masterpiece

Cause baby you're a masterpiece
And you don't really need no filter
Something like a centerpiece
A perfect figure
And Michelangelo couldn't paint it
Bet your last dollar Shakespeare couldn't say it

Strike a pose for the camera, smile and say cheese
You're a masterpiece to me

Michelangelo couldn't paint a picture better than you
The only painter that could paint it is God above
