I Want

Ruby Fields

I wanna be a warrior princess
I'd run away to the ancient towns of Japan
Like my own anime
Cherry blossoms blowing around
Some sick dragon design on my kimono
And katana packed in at my side
Slaying some evil ninjas
While the townspeople run and hide

I wanna be, I wanna be
I wanna be, I wanna be
I wanna be, I wanna be
I want
I wanna be, I wanna be
I wanna be, I wanna be
I wanna be, I wanna be
I want

Wanna be someone else not from here
Make me feel, make me feel
I wanna be fucked up and I wanna be sober
Make me feel, make me feel

I wanna be meditating in temples
Surrounded by the knowledge of sacred scrolls
Worshipping gods as I save the world
From bad guys, demons and trolls

I wanna be, I wanna be
I wanna be, I wanna be
I wanna be, I wanna be
I want
I wanna be, I wanna be
I wanna be, I wanna be
I wanna be, I wanna be
I want

Wanna be someone else not from here
Make me feel, make me feel
Wanna be fucked up and I wanna be sober
Make me feel, make me feel

I wanna be someone who doesn't smoke
For a false sense of validation
I wanna be locked in a room
With my own various darkest creations
I wanna be the clean-cut virgin every guy seeks at a bar
I wanna be more than my parents' opinions and my ATAR

I wanna be, I wanna be
I wanna be, I wanna be
I wanna be, I wanna be
I want
I wanna be, I wanna be
I wanna be, I wanna be
I wanna be, I wanna be
I want

Wanna be someone else not from here
Make me feel
Make me feel
Make me feel
Make me feel

Make me feel, make me feel
Make me feel, make me feel
Make me feel, make me feel
Make me feel, make me feel
Make me feel, make me feel
Make me feel, make me feel
Make me feel, make me feel
Make me feel, make me feel
