

Lose Me

Omar Rudberg

Said it, yeah, I said it
Maybe one, two, three like a hundred times
In it just to win it, oh
But you don't see my side
Give it, yeah, I gave it
Like a million chances, you messed up
Screw it, you blew it
(Oh, oh, oh, yeah)

Every night, a new body
Every night fantasy
Every night, a new body
You know that's all I need
Every night, a new body
Every night fantasy
Sometimes I go back in time

Oh, we could've had this so sweet, sweet like (Sugar, sugar)
Do you think about what you left behind? (Do ya, do ya)
Every night, a new body
Every night fantasy
Bummer that you had to lose me

I've been thinking about you, when I'm all up on the next guy
Now I see what I'm into, see all the things that I like without you and I'm liking me without you
So I'm doing it without you, I'll keep doing it without you, oh

Every night, a new body
Every night fantasy
Every night, a new body
You know that's all I need
Every night, a new body
Every night fantasy
Sometimes I go back in time

Oh, we could've had this so sweet, sweet like (Sugar, Sugar)
Do you think about what you left behind? (Do ya, do ya)
Every night, a new body
Every night fantasy
Bummer that you had to lose me

You were losing me
You were losing me
You were losing me
Unintentionally, you were setting me free
So thank you, baby
