

Mama

Omar Rudberg

I'm writing this song dedicated to mama
I'm living my life and I'm owing it to her
I think I'd have to write a hundred songs
But it wouldn't be enough

Mama, I should tell you
All the little things a little more
Mama, I should tell you
Even though I'm pretty sure you know

That I wanna give you everything
The way I know that you gave me everything
Mama, I wanna tell you
All the little things a little more

Yo estoy super feliz porque tú eres mi madre
No solo eres mi madre, has sido mi padre también
I wish that I could fit it in this song
But it wouldn't be enough

Mama, I should tell you
All the little things a little more
Mama, I should tell you
Even though I'm pretty sure you know

That I wanna give you everything (Ah-ah-aah)
The way I know that you gave me everything (Ah-ah-aah)
Mama, I wanna tell you
All the little things a little more

(Ah-ah-aah) All the little things a little more
(Ah-ah) Mama, I wanna tell you (Mama, I wanna tell you)
All the little things a little more (Oh-oh)
I'm writing a song dedicated to mama

Mama, I should tell you
All the little things a little more (Little more)
Mama, I should tell you
Even though I'm pretty sure you know

That I wanna give you everything (Ah-ah-aah)
The way I know that you gave me everything (Ah-ah)
Mama, I wanna tell you (Mama, I wanna tell you)
All the little things a little more

(Ah-ah-aah) All the little things a little more
(Ah-ah) Mama, I wanna tell you (Aah)
All the little things a little more
