

Be Somebody

Rudimental

Tell me if I miss the point
To me, it feels like we're no longer safe
Let's just keep our bodies warm
We should try and keep ourselves awake

Not sure I give you a reason
We could believe in
To be something good
I don't like the person you're being
The ground feels uneven
Here where we stood

I'm so tired of tryna be somebody
Tryna be somebody
Tryna be somebody else
If you need me to be somebody
Just like everybody
You should find somebody else

To love
To love

So tell me how you're disappointed
Tell me how I made you wait this long
And all this could have been avoided
'Cause you are always right and I was wrong

And you can give me your reasons
I'm sure I'll believe them
Maybe I should
I don't like the person I'm being
There's sides that I'm seeing
I've misunderstood

I'm so tired of tryna be somebody
Tryna be somebody
Tryna be somebody else
If you need me to be somebody
Just like everybody
You should find somebody else

To love
To love

There's a thousand wasted days behind us
To remind us
Of what we used to be
We can't count the ways to say goodbye, love
There's a kindness
In cutting ourselves free

I'm so tired of tryna be somebody
Tryna be somebody
Tryna be somebody else
If you need me to be somebody
Just like everybody

To love
To love
To love
To love
