

Ghost

Rudimental

No I'm not one for praying
But you've got me on my knees
Never been one to say it
But you're something I need
And now I hate to love you
Told me I don't know the meaning
'Cause I put too much above you and me

I should've put you on a pedestal
Tried to shoot and never ever let you go
Feel like I'm out of control
In my head, out of control, yeah-yeah
And I get jealous honestly
Thinking that I should probably go to therapy
To get me over you and me, mmh
Get over you and me, mmh
Get over you and me, mmh
Get over you and me, mmh

'Cause you're a ghost
Got too close and I got way too comfortable
Now I'm sleeping in this bed all alone
With your ghost

You said we're like the movies
But you hated the scene
Sorry that I ignored you
When you were talking to me
Swear now I feel regret, it's
The hardest part to digest
I thought I could do better
And you were the best

I should've put you on a pedestal
Tried to shoot and never ever let you go
Feel like I'm out of control
In my head, out of control, yeah-yeah
And I get jealous honestly
Thinking that I should probably go to therapy
To get me over you and me, mmh
Get over you and me, mmh
Get over you and me, mmh
Get over you and me, mmh

'Cause you're a ghost
Got too close and I got way too comfortable
Now I'm sleeping in this bed all alone
With your ghost

'Cause you're a ghost (yeah)
Got too close and I got way too comfortable
Now I'm sleeping in this bed all alone
With your ghost

'Cause you're a ghost
Got too close and I got way too comfortable
Now I'm sleeping in this bed all alone

With your ghost

'Cause you're a ghost
Got too close and I got way too comfortable
Now I'm sleeping in this bed all alone
With your ghost
