

Jumper

Rudimental

Miss you, lying right here, wearing this jumper
Still got, the scent of your neck, all up on the collar
I wear it to feel closer, closer to you, mmmh
I wear it even though it hurts me to, mmmh

This is where you used to be
This is where you used to be
Inside of this jumper
Wearing your heart on your sleeve
This is where you used to be
This is where you used to be
Inside of this jumper
Wearing your heart on your sleeve

Inside of this jumper (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Inside of this, yeah (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Inside of this jumper (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Inside of this jumper
Wearing your heart on your sleeve

Miss you, pulling on your strings telling me you'd stay here
In my mind, I painted us a picture, now the color's fading
And I wear it to feel closer, closer to you
And I wear it even though it hurts me to, yeah

This is where you used to be
This is where you used to be
Inside of this jumper
Wearing your heart on your sleeve
This is where you used to be
This is where you used to be
Inside of this jumper
Wearing your heart on your sleeve

Inside of this jumper (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Inside of this yeah (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Inside of this jumper (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Inside of this jumper
Wearing your heart on your sleeve

I see it on you in my dreams
I see us dancing round with nothing underneath
I taste the moments that we made
I knew the time we shared was never round to stay
