Remember Their Names

Rudimental

Oh, oh

The roads are long but the time has come to fly
Lay down your weapons, stand on your feet and fight
Hear the calling, hope is coming, just let faith reside
Say you fight for freedom but your hands are tied
Will you be the one to survive?
Who'd you think was gonna save you now?

Just say no (Just say no)
If you keep it up and know better
Then they'll remember your name
Just say no
If you keep it up and know better
Then they'll remember your name

(Just say no
Just say no
Just say no
Just say no
Just say no)

See the walls come down, see the people clear it up
Shards of broken hearts as police inside are froze
Bricks and rubble, place for trouble, try to make unrest
Say you fight for freedom with a kevlar vest
Will you be the ones to survive? (Will you be the ones?)
Who'd you think was gonna save you now?

Just say no (Just say no)
If you keep it up and know better
I'll remember their names
Just say no (Just say no)
If you keep it up and know better (Know better)
Yeah, remember their names

(Just say no
Just say no) Just say
(Just say no
Just say no
Just say no)

No-oh-ah

(Just say no, just say no)
Just say no (Just say no)
Remember their names

(Just say no
Just say no
Just say no
Just say no)

Oh
I know, I know, I know-oh, I know
Yeah, yeah
