

Thunderstorm

Rudimental

I feel it comin'
Saw the fire started burnin' right before my eyes
Saw the people start runnin'
Oh, will I run too? Yeah, I just might

I was lookin' forward to a good time, I had nothing on my mind
But now I'm headed for the Buddha on my own time and I know I'm runnin' blind
And you can do whatever you want to, 'cause I'm not by your side
Thought this was forever, now I'll never share another night

I see my whole world fall around me, crumblin' in
In the mess I made, I keep on stumblin'
I hear the thunderstorm around me rumblin'
There's no happy ever after in this natural disaster

Feel the ground start movin'
Then the quake began beneath my shaking feet
And I forgot about your lovin', ooh
And all those little things I just don't need

I was lookin' forward to a good time, I had nothing on my mind
But now I'm headed for the Buddha on my own time and I know I'm runnin' blind
And you can do whatever you want to, 'cause I'm not by your side
Thought this was forever, now I'll never share another night

I see my whole world fall around me, crumblin' in
In the mess I made, I keep on stumblin'
I hear the thunderstorm around me rumblin'
There's no happy ever after in this natural disaster (Oh)

You got somethin' I've been missin'
Couldn't have it if I wanted
I'm apocalyptic, melancholic
You could have it if you wanted

I see my whole world fall around me, crumblin' in
In the mess I made, I keep on stumblin'
I hear the thunderstorm around me rumblin'
There's no happy ever after in this natural disaster (Oh)

You got somethin' I've been missin'
Oh, natural disaster (Oh)
You got somethin' I've been missin'
Oh, natural disaster
