

Articulate

Ruel

The less that I said
The more that you need it to mean
Two hundred days of you wasting your patience on me
The hole that you left me to fill, just keeps getting longer

But o-o-o-oooh
Leave it unspoken, 'cause my thoughts are broken
O-o-o-oooh
Something I need to say, I can't articulate

The more that I said
The less you believed that it's true
Words become meaningless, but that's the best I could do
The hole that I left you to fill, just keeps getting longer

But o-o-o-oooh
Leave it unspoken, 'cause my thoughts are broken
O-o-o-oooh
Something I need to say, I can't articulate

I gave you my pills to replace all the words that I can't seem to say
You don't have to love me, just don't find somebody who treats you the same

But o-o-o-oooh
Leave it unspoken, 'cause my thoughts are broken
Oh no-o-o-o
Something I need to say, I can't articulate
