

Cats on the Ceiling

Ruel

Cats on the ceiling
The floorboards are breathing and
I can't believe it that I ever lived without you
Without you
The sun starting bleeding
The sky's tangerining
I'm hooked on a feeling that I could never live without you
But I don't want to

And all I remember before you was a blur
And all that you said was you gotta lot to learn
Oh, can you show me?

You could be my teacher
And I could be your rose
Darling, you can drive me to the edge of self-control
You could be my healer
Oh, why do I feel alone?
Watch the flowers grow

The stars were confetti
My legs turned to jelly
My head's feeling heavy
The world started spinning around you
Around you
My lips start to stutter
I trip on the covers
I'm stuck in the gutter
I can't see any colour without you
I'm all about you

And all I remember before you was a blur
And all that you said was you gotta lot to learn
Oh, can you show me?

You could be my teacher
And I could be your rose
Darling, you can drive me to the edge of self-control
You could be my healer
Oh, why do I feel alone?
Watch the flowers grow

You could be my teacher
And I could be your rose
Darling, you can drive me to the edge of self-control
You could be my healer
Oh, why do I feel alone?
Watch the flowers grow

Watch the flowers grow
Watch the flowers grow