

Free Time

Ruel

My eyes are shut
Sleep too much
Probably should get up but what's the rush
Brush my teeth
But not my hair
I used to for you but now I don't care

Watching the clock from the sofa
I just wish you would come over

All of my friends said don't worry I promise you'll be fine
Now I'm alone and I'm lost in my phone with this free time
I used to spend it with you
All of the stupid shit we used to do
Now that you're tied up
I'm tired of all of this free time

I can make some toast
I could watch a show
I could go for a walk but I probably won't
I can do anything I put my mind to if I tried to but I-

Just watching the clock from the sofa
I just wish you would come over

All of my friends said don't worry I promise you'll be fine
But now I'm alone and I'm lost in my phone with this free time
I used to spend it with you
All of the stupid shit we used to do
Now that you're tied up
I'm tired

Of all of this freedom
Thought it was all that I needed
Thought I'd be cool with you leaving
Maybe I was wrong
Crazy since you're gone

All of my friends said don't worry I promise you'll be fine
But now I'm alone and I'm lost in my phone with this free time
I used to spend it with you
All of the stupid shit we used to do
Now that you're tied up
I'm tired of all of this free time
I'm tired of all of this free time
I'm tired of all of this free time
I'm tired of all of this free time

Um hey
Ah it's me
I wanted to call you just to see how you've been
If you um, if you good
Ahh, I saw your mum yesterday at the, er, supermarket which was uh, which was funny
Um, yeah just wanted to see if you were doin alright
I'd love to catch up if you're free, um
So yeah, I would love to talk about everything if you can

See ya
