

Bigger

Ruff Endz

Eh man just play that same thing just like that

Ohh no no bigger than the sky that stretches wide a blue bigger than the rock on your hand i gave to you bigger than the ones who doubt our love is true it's bigger than the both of us never never never never had a greater love greater love how do we ever separate the waves that come crashing to the shore can't lock emotions out, it's too late 'cause it's already in the door and how do we pretend we don't hear the sound of our beating hearts how can we stop the flow when we know we can never be apart all i know is that i see the light of love shining bright like a glow up in the sky that's guiding me through the night can't change your fate no matter what 'cause it's already written down what i found in you, you found in me so whatever happens baby let it be bigger than the sky that stretches wide a blue (oohh bigger than) bigger than the rock on your hand i gave to you (nothing compares our love) bigger than the ones who doubt our love is true (they don't know) it's bigger than the both of us (i never)

just as sho as the wind blows and the sun shines from above rest ashure that tomarrow gon bring this promise of love there will come a day when you hear me say that i do 'cause i already know girl i know that for me that there is only you

'cause all i know is that i see the light of love shining bright (shining bright) like a glow up in the sky that's guiding me through the night (hmmmmmm)
can't change your fate no matter what 'cause it's already written down
what i found in you, you found in me
so whatever happens baby let it be bigger than the sky that stretches wide a blue (oohhhh) bigger than the rock on your hand i gave to you (bigger than, bigger than) bigger than the ones who doubt our love is true (love is true) it's bigger than the both of us (the both of us)

never never never never had a greater love greater love

A man in love is all i am No more no less, that's what i am And i am nothing if you take your love away I'm gonna get down on my knees I'm gonna pray you never leave Till forever's come and gone bigger than the sky that stretches wide a blue (our love is bigger than) bigger than the rock on your hand i gave to you (bigger than the rock that i have to you sing now)

bigger than the ones who doubt our love is true

it's bigger than the both of us (bigger than this game, bigger than this world, bigger than the sun that shine's on us)

Bigger than the sun that stretches wide and blue (bigger than me, bigger than you))

Bigger than the rock that i gave to you (nothing can stop what we started by)

Bigger than the ones who doubt our love is true (bigger than)

It's bigger than the both of us (the both of us)

Never never never never had a greater love greater love

Oh baby bigger than me

Bigger than you oh baby

Bigger than the both of us bother of us

Never never never never
