

Argentina

Rufus Wainwright

What a beautiful day, Argentina
What a beautiful day, say I've missed ya
But I wish he was here to actually hear me say it
Argentina will have to do
What a beautiful day in Brazilia
What a beautiful day to say I love ya
But I wish it was you to actually hear me say it
Brazilia, it's me and you

What a beautiful day, Montevideo
What a beautiful day to say I need you
But I wish he was here to actually hear
[?] Montevideo
I lied, I've never been there

So I bid you goodbye, South America
And you know I'll be back because I love ya
But I gotta go back up north to Canada
And tell you I've missed you
I love you, I need you
