

This One's for the Ladies (That Lunge!)

Rufus Wainwright

This one's for the ladies that lunge
Spunge your brow
Clutch your remaining arrows
Remaining arrows

This one's for the ladies that plunge
Break your vow
Leave your children hanging, dangling

And come with me
To the wondrous land
Where people listen to your plan
And come with me
To a wondrous place
Where no one stares past your face

Nah nah nah nah...

Oh this one's for the ladies that lunge
Spunge your brow
Clutch your remaining arrows
Remaining arrows

Yeah baby, this one's for the ladies that plunge
Break your vow
Leave your children hanging, dangling

Come with me
To a wondrous place
Where people listen to your plan
And come with me
To a wondrous place
Where no one stares past your face
