

Egyptian Song

Rufus

Sweet song singin' take me back (I wanna go)
Sweet song singin' take me back (I wanna go)
Sweet song singin' take me back (I wanna go)
Sweet song singin' take me back (I wanna go)

Here's to, to a long forgotten dream
Enshrouded by, by a history so clean
In a place still the same, so rich with time
I remain in my heart, my soul, my mind

So clear is the mystery to me
So majestic, yet electric, dose of age I see
There remains a sparkle in the sand
Can't restrain these feelings of my ancient land

Here is a melody for you
Sky of white and nylon blue
Let me hurry home to you
To sing, to dance, to laugh

Embrace
So vague is this picture I am seeing

Yet so clear, and so dear my soul is singin'
To belong is this feelin' I am missin'

To embrace this memory I been kissin'
So clear is this mystery to me
So majestic, yet electric, guest of age I see
There remains a sparkle in the sand

Can't restrain these feelings of my ancient land
Here is a melody for you
Sky of white and nylon blue
Let me hurry home to you

To sing, to dance, to laugh
Embrace
I wanna go
Sweet song singin' take me back

I wanna go
Sweet song singin' take me back
