

Here You Are

Rumer

Well, hello
Never thought I'd see that face again
Lord, I can't remember when
The last time was
But here you are
Hidden in a box of odds and ends
Tucked between some pictures of old friends
My old friend

These things just needed going through
The last thing I thought I'd find was you

But here you are
Smiling that smile
Breezy as a summer's day
Here you are
Looking at me that easy way
As if to say
Here you are

Well, I know
I really ought to throw you out
Someday I'll just have to lie about
Why you're here
But here I am
Taking another chance with you
Taking another glance or two
At those eyes

And here's a kiss for old time's sake
Thank God that hearts don't really break

Cause here you are
Smiling that smile
Breezy as a summer's day
Here you are
Looking at me that easy way
As if to say
Here you are

We lost each other
Then lost track
And I never dreamed that
One day you'd be back
But here you are
