

Roses

Rumer

Four AM on the night bus going for the ride
Three ladies are going to work
Heavy load and heavy eyes
A heavy life has no disguise
I'm someone who understands
Though you believe I'm not

Run away
Why do you always run away?
Just like anyone
When summer's gone I turn to grey
When I was a lonely child
I'd sit and watch the breeze
When I was a lonely child
I'd sit amongst the green grass high

There will be Roses
There will be Roses
There will be Roses for you
They're just around the corner
(Hold on)
They're just around the corner

Listen to me, Lord
I let my life slip away
Chasing dreams through the pouring rain
I let my heart slip away

There will be Roses
(What you gonna do when all your dreams come true?)
There will be Roses
(Get everything you want and all your dreams come true?)
There will be Roses
(What you gonna do when all your dreams come true?)
They're just around the corner (hold on)
They're just around the corner (hold on)

Heavy load and heavy eyes (hold on)
A heavy life has no disguise (hold on)
I'm someone who understands
Though you believe I'm not
(There will be roses)
Heavy load and heavy eyes
(In bloom)
A heavy life has no disguise
(In bloom)
Let's go to sleep and wake up somewhere roses bloom
Inside, inside
Just around the corner
Inside, inside
Just around the corner
Inside, inside
Just around the corner
