

Fix Me

rum.gold

You can't heal my wounds
When you're the reason I'm still blue

You can't be my guide
When you're the reason I'm still blind

You can't be my northern star
When you're the reason home seems so far

You can't be my friend
When all I want is you in the end

You can't fix me
You can't fix me
You can't fix me
You can't fix me

I'm sorry

Broken is the boy with no soul
You're the reason nothing hurts
Now everything is cold

Heavy is the heart made of stone
I'm solid as a rock now I can barely run

You can't be my northern star
When you're the reason home seems so far

You can't fix me
You can't fix me
You can't fix me
You can't fix me

I'm sorry
