

How You Like It

rum.gold

I was always right when I was wrong to you
Only whispered lies when I knew the truth
Oh I want
All I want is you

You would break the bread and I would pour the wine
Laying eye to eye just to pass the time

Oh I want
All I want is you

I guess that's just how you like it
I guess that's just how you like it
I guess that's just how you like it

Tried to cut our ties but you would guide my hand
Told you I would leave, that this was stolen land

Oh I want
All I want is you

Held me like a noose in a quiet room
Buried in the dare only lies the truth

Oh I want
All I want is you

I guess that's just how you like it
I guess that's just how you like it
I guess that's just how you like it

I guess that's just how you like it
I guess that's just how you like it
(Oh you lie you lie you lie you lie you lie)
I guess that's just how you like it
(There's nothing left for me to say, in love I took the easy way)

I guess that's just how you like it
I guess that's just how you like it
I guess that's just how you like it
(Oh I could tell you it was all a lie, I don't need you in my life)

I guess that's just how you like it
(Everything is easy till it ain't, loving you was never quite the same)

It was all a lie
