

Lullaby

rum.gold

Wake me up when we are in heaven
When all of our sins are forgiven
I can feel the tomb and its burning
Bones are breaking
Bodies bruising

Don't scream
These demons aren't what they seem
Know that it's all in your head
Broken but we're far from dead

No tears
They've coated all the walls in fear
Know that it's all in your head
Broken but we've made this bed

Maybe there's nowhere to run
You're fighting with a paper gun
I'll be there to hold your hand
These dreams were made on stolen land

Wake me up when we are in heaven
When all our sins are forgiven
I feel the tomb and its burning
Bones are breaking
Bodies bruising

Wake me up when we are in heaven
When all of our sins are forgiven
I can feel the tomb and its burning
Bones are breaking
Bodies bruising

Lullaby
These flames are singing us a lullaby
Singing so our sins are rectified
A song so beautiful it makes you cry
