

Niagara Falls

rum.gold

Oh voices in my head
I'm all you needed but you wanted him instead
There's nothing left to say but plenty left unsaid

I guess you'll never see
What we were meant to be

Where you wanna go
Back to Niagara where you tried to end it all
Here lies two lovers who were dead before the fall

It wasn't hard to see
You'd be the death of me

Oh I'll be
I'll be my one and only
I'll be the one to hold me
My heart just doesn't hurt
My tears don't seem to work
I'm happy being lonely

Oh I'm happy being lonely

Demons
They give my broken heart a reason
They help me justify my feelings

Tried all we could try
You said you'd rather die
Then try to live a lie
Sitting on the edge where the waterfall meets the sky

It's easier to fall
Then giving you my all
Stuck along the border of two places we adore

Where you wanna go
Back to Niagara when you pushed me in the falls
You took my life when I had given you my all
As above so below
The boy I used to know

Oh I'll be
(I don't wanna be alone)
I'll be my one and only
(Tell me what I have to show)
I'll be the one to hold me
(I don't wanna watch you go)
My heart just doesn't hurt
(Don't leave)
My tears don't seem to work
(I don't know how to be)
I'm happy being lonely
(Lonely)

Happy being lonely

Happy being lonely
Happy being lonely
Happy being lonely
