

Save You

rum.gold

You're the air I couldn't breathe
You're the sky I wanna see
You're the lock and I'm the key
And all I wanna do is save you
Save you
Save you

You're the weight inside my lungs
You're a melody unsung
Don't know if it can be done
But all I wanna do is save you
Save you
Save you

Dark nights, no calls
I could hear the secrets in the walls
Sunrise, tears fall

You can try to fight, but, darling, know I'm here for you
You can try to hide, but know you can't outrun the truth
If you only knew all the love I had for you
You'd see why I wanna save you
Save you
(Oh)

Hid the pain within the dare
I knew love just wasn't fair
It's as if you didn't care
When I said you were gonna break me
Break me, yeah
Break me

Dark nights, no calls
I could hear the secrets in the walls
Sunrise, tears fall

You can try to fight, but, darling, know I'm here for you
You can try to hide, but know you can't outrun the truth
If you only knew all the love I had for you
You'd see why I wanna save you
Save you
(Oh) Oh

I've said all that I can say
I know I should walk away
It's a bitter price to pay
When all I wanna do is save you
Save you
Save you
