

Waiting For

rum.gold

Would we lose it all in the morning
Suddenly the sun makes it all feel alarming Breaking up our routine
This new thing it's daunting
Rest my head on you it's a border I'm crossing

Just another drop, fill me up, till I'm holy Heaven only knows
What we'd do when we're Lonely
Break the bread and watch as the seas come calling

All in my head should I play it safe
Hide away feelings and play the game
How can I tell if you feel the same
I hear a change, when u say my name
Yea

Searching for the words to tell you...

You
I cannot pretend no more
You
Tell me what's behind that door
You
I would risk it all and more
You
Could be who I've waited for

You
I can't get you out my head
You
Were the ghost to haunt my bed
You
I can't risk it all no more
You
Can't be who I'm waiting for

Ohh
Ohh
Ohh
Ohh

I just need some space
Please hear me out
I can't hear myself think
In this house
I am not your hearts first casualty
Maybe you should set me free

Take one step closer and you're done
Heaven only knows what I've become
Oh you gave me love
I want it but I had to give you up

All in my head should I play it safe
How can I tell
If you feel the same

I hear a change, when u say my name
Yea

Searching for the words to tell you...

You
You
You
I would risk it all and more
You
Could be who I've waited for

You
You
Were the ghost to haunt my bed
You
You

Ohh
Ohh
