Beetle

Run River North

Don't know where to begin
If this is where it will end up
Do you think that it's over
Before it even begins?
Don't know where to begin
If this is where it will end up
Do you think that it's over
Before it even begins?

And then you'll wake, wake up in a cold and empty sweat
In the middle of the night from a dream you'll never forget

You're running from the ghost on top of the hill
He's calling your name, he's calling your name
You thought he was gone, but you're awake
And you were caught in the middle again
You try you try, you don't know why
The monkey in your head says it doesn't exist
You know in your heart that you feel alive
When you sing, shout out loud

And then you'll wake, wake up in a cold and empty sweat
In the middle of the night from a dream you'll never forget

And then you'll wake, wake up in a cold and empty sweat
In the middle of the night from a dream you'll never forget

You're running from the ghost on top of the hill
He's calling your name, he's calling your name
You thought he was gone, but you're awake
And you were caught in the middle again
You're running from the ghost on top of the hill
He's calling your name, he's calling your name
You thought he was gone, but you're awake
And you were caught in the middle again
