Ghost

Run River North

You sing your favorite songs
(Walk along another bridge)
Don't really care to fight
(Don't see the difference)
Maybe you're color blind
(I don't know when to stop)
But blood is spilling out
(Blood is all I've got)

You're not a ghost keeping secrets no one else can take
I hate it most, the feeling never seems to break
Can no one hear me?
Is anybody listening?
Making the same face, the one you couldn't shake
You're just a snake making paths no one else can take

When did you come undone?
(I saw you took the truth)
Who gave you promises?
(Who gave them back to you?)
Maybe you'll never know
(I don't know when to stop)
But blood is spilling out
(Blood is all I've got)

You're not a ghost keeping secrets no one else can take
I hate it most, the feeling never seems to break
Can no one hear me?
Is anybody listening?
Making the same face, the one you couldn't shake
You're just a snake making paths no one else can take
You're just a snake making paths no one else can take

You're just a ghost
(Blood is spilling out)
A ghost
(Blood is spilling out)
A ghost
(Blood is spilling out)
A ghost

You're not a ghost keeping secrets no one else can take
I hate it most, the feeling never seems to break
Can no one hear me?
Is anybody listening?
Making the same face, the one you couldn't shake

You're not a ghost keeping secrets no one else can take
I hate it most, the feeling never seems to break
Can no one hear me?
Is anybody listening?
Making the same face, the one you couldn't shake
You're just a snake making paths no one else can take
You're just a snake making paths no one else can take

I'm just a snake making paths no one else can take
