

So

So soon the blood will start to show 'cause it feels like it hit
I don't know where he came from, but you know? Did you see?
What did you say you know him what? Why'd he want me?
I cannot stay awake right now

How did he get here, all on his own...
Did he have your phone... did he?
There's 5 on the floor here, now you're on your own
Tell me did you know... did he?

I saw a big green row of evergreen
And Juno in the front seat now

I don't know who, but I want to
You hold my heart heavy, you hold my heart heavy oh no
Don't you say it to me, no you don't need me
Don't you say it to me

I don't know who, but I want to
You hold my heart heavy, you hold my heart heavy oh no
Don't you say it to me, no you don't need me
Don't you say it to me

So

There's ten lungs all across the hall, and it feels like it's this
A second hand has reached for me and then pulled me to the bridge
Double Elvis on the wall while you shout at me
I cannot stay awake right now

How did they get here, it wasn't on their own
Did they take your phones? Did he?
There's 5 on the floor here, all pissing and rouge
Simon on the phone did he?

I saw a big green row of evergreen
And Juno in the front seat now

I don't know who, but I want to
You hold my heart heavy, you hold my heart heavy oh no
Don't you say it to me, no you don't need me
Don't you say it to me

I don't know who, but I want to
You hold my heart heavy, you hold my heart heavy oh no
Don't you say it to me, no you don't need me
Don't you say it to me

Michael on the ceiling
Like a meridian past the fist
Lempickas key
The moons tow leaves
Me and my parrots
A Kinga piece
