

I haven't heard much lately from you
From you
It's what I hear that really sets the cue
From you

I haven't heard much lately from you
From you
All this talk of common sense from you
From you

Suppose I'm dying
There's no bruises on my knees
You're just stubborn
Suppose I'm honest
When I can barely breathe
Down and counted

Just acting so late
Make sure you do it all from afar
Post modern fighting
It's all done from afar

I haven't heard much lately from you
From you
It's what I hear that really sets the cue
From you

I haven't heard much lately from you
From you
All this talk of common sense from you
From you

Suppose I'm dying
There's no bruises on my knees
You're just stubborn
Suppose I'm honest
When I can barely breathe
Down and counted

Just acting so late
Make sure you do it all from afar
Post modern fighting
It's all done from afar
