

Why Do I

Running Touch

I drove past you
In June there and soon knew that I would
The pain was new
The blue led like you said that it would

The night into, the noon there
And soon understood
I made sure that you knew
The truth there, the years that we would

Tell me why do I need you?
Why do I need you?
Why do I need you?

I heard you were new and bruised there
And soon knew that I should
9 mustangs through
The roof said and told me that I could

I know you saw it too
The years there, the pink through the wood

Tell me why do I need you?
Why do I need you?
(Why do I need you when the sun goes down on me? Tell me what you want)

Why do I need you?
(Why do I need you when the sun goes down on me?)
Why do I need you?
Why do I need you?
Why do I need you?

Why do I need you?
(Why do I need you when the sun goes down on me? Tell me what you want)
