

Black Demon

Running Wild

Ancient warriors, troops of hell
Demon commands, parsons to fell
Iron-bound horses, twinkling gaze
Marching to win, black laws to raise.
Satan's army, shields and swords
Crying "Deliverance!", raising their lords
Barking sleuthhounds on the parson's trail
Lucifer's warriors are bringing the gale

Hell troops conquer, burning the church
Raising hellfire, satanic rules to urge
Reaper takes, commander's black
The living dead at his back

Deliverance, black demon
Breaking the trance, black demon
To that bastard's lethal, black demon
Tonight

Heart of iron he scorns the priest
Satan he serves, sanctifies the beast
He drinks the venom, desecrates the shrine
Dethroning god, leaving his mortal sign
Satanic lord takes away the scourge
He frees all mankind from the church
Condemns the moral, raises the sin
Revenging the tortured and the loser's win
